Dimensions Are Constantly Crossing Over Each Other, #ParallelUniverse

Again, we exist or other versions of us exist in other dimensions. So, when you decide on a job and go one way...another you will go ahead and do it the other way. You have all these other parts of you out there living a life that you gave up. This is where you get into a parallel universe. There are thousands of other dimensions that you can go in and out of. You can cross over but you don't stay there.

For instance:

- A woman come out of a dormitory and on the first day there were construction everywhere. Then the next day there was no construction, so everything is energy and an illusion.
- A woman was out jogging and saw an airplane about to crash. She ran back home to watch the news, but they never reported it because it happened in another dimension that had crossed over into hers.

-One woman said she went outside, and an airplane was going forward then backwards. Then she saw the cars going forward then backwards. That was another dimension crossing over.

-One woman went from her apartment to the outside and started walking down the street. She said everyone was dressed like they were in the 1950s, so she got scared and went back inside and when she came out again, it was normal.

-There was a man who got a phone call at 2:00 a.m. from his cousin. The next day he asked his cousin why did he call him so late at night? The cousin replied I never called you, so it was another version of his cousin reaching out from another dimension.

Dolores Cannon's Theory on Why 75% of the World's Population Doesn't Have A Soul

In my last newsletter I told you guys that Commander Val Nek from the Galactic Federation told Megan Rose Medium, that over 75% of people on Planet Earth don't have a soul. I did not give you any explanations in that newsletter except they might be clones or avatars, but this is what Dolores Cannon has said about many of the people in the world. She calls them the "Back Drop" or "Back Fill" people. She discussed the "Back Drop" people in her book "The Convoluted Universe, Book Four".

I never read this book. I got most of the info for this newsletter from a YouTube lecture by her. She has a series of the Convoluted Books and she said to read those books in order because they might be hard for many to follow so don't get so caught up in her explanation and especially don't allow it to deter you from your path. Like the upcoming disclosures, the only people that this newsletter will probably upset are 'low vibrational beings' on this 3D earth, because as Spiritualists transitioning into a 5D earth, not much can surprise us about this planet. However, none of us really know how the world works, especially after what we all learned in 2020. The fact that all of us have been lied to since we were born was just the icing on the cake.

Dolores Cannon says everything is an illusion and nothing is real. Everything is energy. She said the building where she was holding the lecture did not exist until the audience collectively chose to go there. This shows you how powerful we are because we are creating everything in our lives. Everything in your life you put it there. Everyone should get out of the victim mode because you created everything that has happened to you. Everything that happened you created. Everytime you go anywhere or even back to your house it is recreated by the “Back Drop People”.

Your life is a movie, and you are creating the movie. Many don't realize this until they pass away, then they say it was just a movie or play. You are the producer, director, writer, and scriptwriter in your own play. You can create anything you want. This is your movie, but it would not be a good movie if you were the only person in it. So, you cast extras or the “Back Drop People” to work in different parts. The “Back Drop People” are not real. They are just energy because you could not go through your movie by yourself. The people around you – your family and friends are real, but these other ones are not. They don't have a soul. They can evolve but they are not on the evolutionary path that we are on. They are lower density dense energy.

What we also learned in 2020 is that StarTrek, StarGate, and Portals are real. Therefore, the “Back Drop People” are holographic. It's like being on the holodeck on Star Trek. A holographic environment simulator, or holodeck as it was most commonly referred to was a holographic simulation room, which was a form of holotechnology designed and used by the Federation Starfleet which ran holographic programs. They were installed aboard starships, space stations and at Starfleet institutions for use in entertainment, training, and investigative purposes.

How Do You Tell the Difference Between the Backdrop People and Everyone Else?

You can recognize the “Back Drop” or “Back Fill” people because this is their first reincarnation. They are energy and they get totally involved in the material world and are usually low in intelligence. The negative is way at the bottom. When you go to a shopping mall, the “Back Drop People” sticks out. You can feel their energy. If you interact with them, you give them a bit part in your movie, a speaking part. They don't have free will.

Are We The Back Drop People For Others?

Are we the “Back Drop People” for others? Yes probably, but we are real people evolving. Because we are interacting with each other -- your family is there. The people in your life are there. Think about it but don't let it drive you crazy. It is your world -- your planet so how many people have you put in there?

Buzz Aldrin, an American Astronaut, said in 1969 that there were 3 and a half billion people on the planet and now it is supposedly 7 billion. That figure has been thrown around for years. Many of those might be “Back Drop People.” However, many are leaving in large numbers with earthquakes, tsunamis, COVID deaths, etc.

What Did We Learn from the ‘Back Drop’ or ‘Back Fill’ People?

We learned that we maintain an environment holographically, and we are bringing in the “Back Drop People.” You will never see these people again. They are just there to fill up space because your mind want them to be there. What did you learn from these other entities? We learned how not to do something. If you did not have these examples from these “Back Drop People,” you would not know what not to do. If you say you did not learn anything then you have to repeat the class and you are brought back, reincarnated -- with the same people and same circumstances. That is the law of karma. Therefore, we are all creating the Multiverse.
